

abp corporate membership

Welcome

Our corporate membership benefits have been specifically selected and designed to provide the most beneficial options for both your organisation and the individuals. Our benefits are detailed below and are broken into categories including the benefits as part of the membership. A summary breakdown of the membership benefits is outlined on the last page for ease of reference. If you have any questions, please contact the ABP Board corporate membership representative or administration team. We look forward to having you on-board as we support your organisation's professional ambitions and development.

Why become a corporate member?

1. Gain corporate membership, which is affordable in comparison to other market competitors/similar organisations, built for both large and small organisations to deliver return on your investment.
2. Align your organisation strategies and objectives by gaining value through supporting employee professional growth and development, enhancing their potential and performance.
3. Increase your organisational visibility/exposure in the market via access to our social media and other media related benefits such as job posting platforms and advertising on our website.
4. Ensure your organisational services and expertise are up to date with the best and latest business psychology trends, research, knowledge, and best practice.
5. Gain access to an exclusive professional connected network of corporate members, with a varied range of professional backgrounds, expertise, and experience in different industries.
6. Provide your members a platform for knowledge sharing and keeping up to date with best practice, new trends, and innovative research in the market, to become thought leaders in the market.
